

FBLA

COLLEGIATE

Excellence Award

Build real-world skills, earn national recognition, and stand out to employers.

What is the Excellence Award?

The FBLA Collegiate Excellence Award recognizes members at the national level who show outstanding commitment to personal and professional development through active involvement in FBLA programming and leadership opportunities.

This award provides a unique opportunity to highlight achievements and strengthen transferable skills, while enhancing the college experience. There are three levels of distinction: Bronze, Silver, and Gold. Each represents an increasing level of achievement and dedication.

How It Works

Earn points by

- Participating in FBLA programs and webinars
- Attending conferences and networking events
- Serving in leadership roles in the community
- Engaging in community service initiatives
- And more!

Earning recognition

- Bronze – 120 points
- Silver – 180 points
- Gold – 240 points

Points reset each academic year, giving a fresh start to showcase dedication and earn more recognition.

Key Benefits

- Build a strong foundation of skills and experiences that stand out in the workforce.
- Expand networks through workshops, conferences, and events with industry professionals.
- Make a meaningful impact by serving in leadership roles and joining community service projects.
- Earn national recognition that highlights commitment to personal and professional development.

 Register now on  OCONNECT

Submissions due MAY 1.